Kristine Mills Records Live at Cezanne

Cezanne

April 28, 2007

Kristine Mills records her first album live on April 28th at Cezanne. Kristine Mills is joined by the Ken Ward Jazz Ensemble featuring Barry Lee Hall, Jr. and Rocky White of the Duke Ellington Orchestra.

Kristine Mills, a "born-to-perform singer" has been impressing audiences with her varied repertoire, vocal prowess and command of various languages for decades.

Kristine, a devoted student of music and voice, began her studies privately in Houston. She continued to study voice and music while earning her degree in Linguistics and Spanish at the University of Texas at Austin.

While attending college, she performed on 6th Street and with groups Hot Wax, a 50's -60's review and B'samim, a Jewish folk band.

After graduation, Kristine returned to Houston to launch her professional jazz vocalist career at Ovations.

Kristine is noted for pulling in a record turnout of friends, family and jazz fans. Since then Kristine has graced stages throughout Texas, Louisiana, Florida, Brazil and Belgium.

Kristine has had the privilege of playing with so many wonderful and generous musicians in her career. Together they have shared the stage for prestigious venues, companies and individuals throughout the years.

Expect an exciting night of jazz classics from Ellington, Porter and Gershwin, lush renditions of Bossa Nova sung in Portuguese, plus, rip-roaring, down-and-dirty blues.

An original song by Kristine will also debuted that evening.
