

press release 06.03.2007 22:23 jazz

Houston Jazz Artist Kristine Mills to Record First Album Live April 28th

Celebrated Houston jazz sensation Kristine Mills and the Kristine Mills Jazz Ensemble will record live at Cézannes (4100 Montrose) Saturday April 28th 9 p.m. - 1 a.m.

Featured in the ensemble are two veterans of the Duke Ellington Orchestra, drummer Rocky White and Barry Lee Hall, Jr., conductor/arranger and trumpet player for the DEO. The other members of the ensemble include Ken Ward on piano and David Craig on bass and Paul Chester on guitar, the players consistently seen performing with Kristine's throughout Houston.

The LIVE recording that evening will serve as Kristine Mills' first album. The working title is Live at Cézannes, Kristine Mills MUSIC.

Andy Bradley of SugarHill Recording Studio will be on premises to direct the recording. Expect a very exciting night of jazz classics including those penned by Ellington, Porter and Gershwin. Hear Kristine's beautiful and lush renditions of Bossa Nova sung in Portuguese. Then get moving in your seat with rip-roaring, down-and-dirty blues sure to make you blush. An original song written by Kristine may be debuted that evening.

Cézannes is located at 4100 Montrose above the Black Lab restaurant. Tickets are $15; Cézannes is a non-smoking venue.

Visit www.kristinemillsmusic.com for other club dates and private performances.

For more information or to purchase tickets, contact kristine\(at\)kristinemillsmusic.comkristinemillsmusic.com).

###

© L.A.

press contacts

No press contacts stated

© 2005 jazz news ::
home page